STATEMENT OF FACTS

This complaint is based on the reports, documents, and notes furnished to U. S. Immigration and Customs Enforcement Special Agent Enrique Torregrosa.

On March 10, 2008, at approximately 1658 hours, Amalia Rebecca LOYA entered the United States from the Republic of Mexico via the Calexico, California West Port of Entry. LOYA was the driver of a 2006 Ford F-150 bearing California U.S. plate 8G10160. LOYA was accompanied by her infant daughter and her sister-in-law Karla Heroina OCHOA-Martinez.

Customs and Border Protection Officer (CBPO) R. Garcia obtained negative Customs declarations from LOYA and OCHOA. During CBPO Garcia's primary inspection, CBPO Garcia noticed that OCHOA had an expired I-551 and escorted LOYA, OCHOA and the vehicle to vehicle secondary lot for further inspection. At that time LOYA asked CBPO Garcia if they could just go back into Mexico.

Upon arrival to the vehicle secondary lot CBPO E. Garcia contacted LOYA and OCHOA and obtained negative Customs declarations. CBPO E. Garcia asked LOYA about the vehicle she was driving and her destination, to which she responded that it was her daughter's father and she was going back home to Fort Irwin, California. CBPO E. Garcia also asked LOYA about her trip to Mexico and she stated she went to visit family for the weekend. CBPO E. Garcia requested for CBP Canine Officer Ragsdale to screen the vehicle utilizing his Human/Narcotic Detector Dog (HNDD). The HNDD alerted to the spare tire of the vehicle.

A subsequent search of the spare tire of the vehicle by CBPO E. Garcia revealed nine packages concealed within the spare tire of the vehicle. The approximate weight of the packages was 41.00 kilograms (90.20 pounds). CBPO E. Garcia probed one package, which produced a green leafy substance, which field-tested positive for marijuana.

Special Agent Torregrosa read the Miranda Rights to LOYA and OCHOA which they understood and waived agreeing to answer questions. LOYA stated that her boyfriend offered her $2,500.00 to smuggle what she thought it was drugs. OCHOA stated she overheard her brother offer LOYA money to smuggle something into the United States, OCHOA stated that LOYA offered her some money to smuggle what she thought it was drugs into the United States.
